"1. The minimum graduation credits are 33 credits (excluding master's thesis and education credits); graduate students in our department who wish to take the education program must pass the selection process of our university before they can enroll.

2. Thesis guidance (I) and (II) are not counted towards graduation credits; upon registration, students must at least take one course (including the thesis), otherwise they should apply for a leave of absence.

3. Students who have completed the minimum graduation credits in our department but are still in the process of writing their thesis must select ""Master's Thesis"" starting from the next academic year.

4. Graduate students in our department who take elective courses offered by our department (without limitation on the semester) can all be counted as graduation credits.

5. Students in our department who cross-register for courses in the English Department's master's program or Translation Institute are limited to a maximum of 6 credits recognized, while courses taken outside the department and inter-school elective courses (excluding dual-degree programs) are limited to a maximum of 3 credits recognized.

6. Graduate students must complete the ""Academic Research Ethics Education"" course through the online teaching platform of the Taiwan Academic Ethics Education Resource Center (https://ethics.nctu.edu.tw/) before applying for the degree examination, in accordance with relevant regulations."
